Camp duties

Camp Q provides dormitory accommodation and buffet style meal services with the expectation that the booking group will complete some camp duties to help keep fee's affordable.

The booking group may choose to set tables as desired prior to each meal service, and linen can be hired from the camp in advance if requested.

At the conclusion of the meal service it is the booking group's responsibility to clear tables and place all used crockery, cutlery and glassware onto a scullery trolley. The group will be provided sufficient cleaning equipment to keep the dining room floor, tables and adjacent tea/coffee preparation area clean.

If groups do not wish to perform duties, including cleaning the dining room and loading/unpacking the dishwasher, an additional fee will be applied. This needs to be discussed in advance of arrival.

Groups are asked to sweep through the dormitory areas that were occupied and to mop bathroom floors before departure. Any areas returned in an unsatisfactory condition will incur a cleaning fee.
