Mentor Training Course

Learn how to be a successful mentor

Mentoring is a valuable way to help coaches, officials and committee members improve their knowledge, skills and confidence.

Sport Australia's Mentor Training Course will support you to plan and organise mentoring relationships and assist mentees to develop and improve.

This course is valued at $300 and is offered FREE through a partnership between the City of Mandurah and Department of Local Government, Sport and Cultural Industries.

The course covers:

- How to set up successful mentoring relationships
- How to give advice and feedback
- Knowing your mentee and building rapport
- Develop communication skills

If you're interested in developing others, then this course is not to be missed!

Delivered through the Every Club program.
