2019 Peel Sports Forum

Sport — Bringing Community Together

Don't miss this high-quality annual training and development event.

The 2019 Peel Sports Forum is the Western Australian sport and recreation sector's annual training and development event.

If you're part of a sporting club committee, a coach, or otherwise involved in the industry, the forum is your chance to connect with and be inspired by others in the sector. You'll also have the opportunity to find out how to manage conflict and difficult people, and understand the benefits of inclusivity for your club. Sports journalist and commentator Mark Readings is MC and panel facilitator. Other highlights include:

- Guest speaker, Matthew Pavlich, former AFL and Fremantle Dockers star who will talk about his experiences throughout his professional career.
- Panel discussion with Paralympian and wheelchair basketballer Brad Ness, water polo Olympic gold medallist Simone Fountain and former Essendon AFL player Ben Howlett.
- Shelley Taylor-Smith, women's marathon swimming world champion will present on leadership and coach management.
- The WACA will show you how to develop your club volunteers and provide some practical strategies through a case study.
- Sponsorship – what do clubs need to know to be successful.
